Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation

Opening of Shenyang Branch of SMBCCN

TOKYO, June 28, 2010 --- Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation (SMBC, President: Masayuki Oku) announced today that its wholly-owned subsidiary Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation (China) Limited (“SMBCCN”, President: Kazunori Okuyama) has opened Shenyang Branch in Shenyang, Liaoning Province, People’s Republic of China, as a part of its efforts to further strengthen its office network in mainland China.

Northeast China where Shenyang lies is achieving particularly rapid development support by the government under the Northeast China Revitalization Plan. SMBC and SMBCCN have signed economic cooperation agreements with the People’s Government of Shenyang and Shenyang Finance and Trade Development Zone, and signed a similar agreement with the People’s Government of Liaoning Province today. These will enable us to deliver enhanced services to our customers.

For SMBC, China is one of its most important markets in the world. SMBC’s goal is to provide comprehensive financial services to its customers in China, and this full network of thirteen offices in mainland China, including Shenyang Branch and Shanghai Puxi Sub-branch which will be opened soon, is a key initiative for achieving this goal.
